

TROOP 95 SUMMER CAMP CONTRACT

So you're going to camp! Camp Chawanakee is a one-of-a-kind experience. While it is a great opportunity to relax and have fun with your fellow scouts, we also go with a plan and a purpose and goals to accomplish. We will learn things together (team building) and we will learn things individually (merit badge classes). The camp is beautiful; the campfires each night are awesome; the camaraderie can't be beat. All in all, it will be a fabulous week. Be prepared to have the time of your life!

The following is a list of expectations that each camper must read, sign and abide by. While at camp you will:

- Be up and dressed by 7:00 am each morning
- Join your fellow scouts for breakfast in the dining hall
- Participate in your merit badge classes each day
- Be in your tent, lights out at 10:00 pm
- Observe the Scout Oath and Scout Law at all times
- Be courteous of other campers at all times
- Obey all camp rules, especially safety rules and the rules against the use of alcohol, tobacco, controlled substances and any objects used as weapons
- Plus, join in troop activities such as:
 - Camp service projects
 - Camp competitions
 - Scout vespers

These are the expectations of each and every scout. Failure to observe them will result in your parents being called to pick you up. Remember you are a Boy Scout and your behavior reflects not only on you and your family, but on the troop and Boy Scouting as well. Camp is a troop experience not just an individual experience. You are responsible to your fellow scouts as well as to yourself.

I understand and agree to abide by the troop and camp rules:
